New Staff Member

The Mid North Regional Development Board has appointed a new staff member. Local resident Alan Schwarz has been recently appointed to the position of Business Development Officer and will bring an excellent set of skills and experience to the Board.

Chair Kay Matthias has stated “Alan comes to the Board with an excellent skills set and a vast amount of experience in operating a business in this region and assisting business throughout South Australia. We look forward to him commencing duties and will join the Board’s small but effective team.” As Business Development Officer he will be assisting in the roll-out of the Board’s “Developing Emerging Entrepreneurs” project and Small Business Month seminars throughout October.
