Small Business Month Activities in Mid North Region

“Neil Jericho, General Manager of Taylors Wines will be the key-note speaker at local Small Business Month events and all business people are invited to attend”, Chair of the Mid North Regional Development Board, Kay Matthias has stated.

Events will be held throughout the month of October in Clare, Burra and Eudunda in conjunction with the SA Small Business Month, which is sponsored by the South Australian Government, through the Department of Trade and Economic Development (DTED).

The Clare launch of Small Business Month will be held on Thursday 4th October, commencing at 5pm, at the Clare Country Club. In addition to the key note speaker, an Expo of programs and assistance, to business, offered by the Board and various State and Federal Government Agencies will also be featured.

Mrs Matthias further stated, “Any business person attending will benefit from the information available and will have the opportunity to speak to staff attending the Expo stands, as well as the Board’s staff.” Displays and information will be available from Rural Directions Pty Ltd, AusIndustry, Australian Tax Office, Department of Trade and Economic Development and others.

Entry is free for all events, but places are limited. Further information on the events and registrations to attend can be viewed at the Board’s website www.mnrdb.com.au . Full information on events being held throughout the State is available at the Board’s Office at 2/17 Lennon Street, Clare, phoning 88423115 or on the website.
